5) Baseball City Hitter's Club membership

- A. We don't use bad weather as an excuse not to develop our baseball skills. The Connecticut Capitals train indoors at Baseball City in Hartford, CT. You will not find a better indoor baseball training facility in the country! Capital players are very lucky to have this type of training center in their backyard!
- B. CT Capital players have a Baseball City Hitter's Club membership
 - unlimited cage rentals all year
 - membership rates apply for everything else
 - refer to Hitter's Club flyer for all the details

6) Professional Equipment Package

Players receive 2 game hats, 1 batting helmet, 2 game jerseys, 1 game pants, 1 workout shirt, 1 pair of shorts, 1 player's bag, belt & socks. All Equipment is property of the players – players will be able to keep all equipment at the conclusion of the season. Players may purchase additional equipment/apparel; however, this cost is additional.

7) Home Games

East Catholic High School is the home field for the CT Capitals 13U-18U Teams

8) Team Structure

- A. 15 Player Maximum (2 pitcher only spots are also available at reduced tuition)
- B. Playing Time determined by coaches
- C. Playing Positions determined by coaches

Parents will be required to sign a Player/Parent contract on such issues

9) Teaching Philosophy

All teaching is done pro style – professional Connecticut Capitals curriculum developed by our owner Bill Masse, current Major League Scout for the Seattle Mariners. Bill is going on his 21st year as a professional player, coach, manager and scout. His longest stint was with the New York Yankees as a player, coach and manager for 13 years.
